

Daniel DiBerardinis

Biography

My name is Daniel Timothy Michael DiBerardinis. I am 23 senior at Temple University, majoring in Sport and Recreation Management. I have done a lot of growing up over the past year and believe I am finally coming into the man, I someday want to be. I have lost a lot of people I love in life, and believe it has really made me a much stronger person.

I have always had a deep passion for sports. Growing up I was always told by my parents, that when working, you really need to love what you do, or you will not be able to give 100% to the job. So with that advice, I took on internships with the Philadelphia Phillies, Eagles, and Recreation Department, while I have been at Temple. During my time in each of these jobs, I have really learned a lot about what goes on in the sporting industry, and I am certain that is where I belong after college. I believe I am a really ambitious person, with a lot to offer. When I put my mind to something, it gets done.

Strive for what you believe in, set goals and you can achieve them

Quotes I live by:

“Give thanks for what you are now, and keep fighting for what you want to be tomorrow”

“Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is not to stop questioning”

“What you do in life, echoes in eternity”

“Stay far from timid, only make moves when your hearts in, and live the phrase sky’s the limit”.